Results-oriented initiative will end wasteful spending by state

By Robert Sprague and Don Manning
Special to The Youngstown Vindicator

Too often in government, a problem arises and it quickly grabs our attention. Then policymakers rush into conference rooms in Columbus and work out some one-size-fits-all solution aimed at fixing the issue. But rarely does it work. Instead, taxpayer dollars are spent on more failing programs that place Ohio even further away from identifying real solutions to very real problems. Just recently, The Vindicator reported that in Trumbull County, overdose deaths are spiking once again – 27 already this year through March 13...
