Understanding Investment Basics for Ohio Public Funds Mike Savage, Managing Director/VP, Fifth Third Securities, Inc.	This course will enhance the audience's working knowledge as applicable to investing Ohio public funds. This session will provide the audience with real life examples of how investments have benefited other schools throughout the state, as well as provide the audience with an option to improve their district's investment strategies. <ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>1. Teach and Update School Treasurers on Fed Funds &amp; Economic Landscape</li><li>2. Discuss current investment returns and investment analytics</li><li>3. Discuss cash flow strategies</li></ol> 2 Statement of Accreditation Rationale: Because school business officials are required to be good stewards with school district finances thus they must stay up to date on current market changes and the economic landscape of investing. Also, school districts are limited to the number and type of investments that are allowed to be used thus they must continue to be updated on those requirements and the investment vehicles that are available to ensure that they are performing their required duties in fiscally responsible and lawful manner.
