

Ohio University Leadership Project Course Description Quick Guide

Course Name	Course Description
Are Bonds About to Change a 30 Year Trend? Scott Stubbins, Citizens National Bank	This presentation will update attendees on current market conditions. We will examine the 30 year bond rally and analyze whether the bull market is changing its trend. What a change in trend would mean to school treasurer's investments and bond financings going forward. Attendees will learn the components that make up interest rates and the math related to bond investments.
Fundamentals of a Bond Sale David Tiggett, Director, KeyBanc Capital Markets	This course is a general overview of the various types of municipal bond, the purpose for each bond type and process the for issuing bonds. This course is designed for the government official who is involved in the process of securing financing for a governmental project. The objective is to provide the attendee with a general knowledge of how to select the right method and type of financing for their project and who needs to be involved to facilitate the process.
The Governor's Proposed Budget and Issues Impacting State Aid Mike Sobul, Consultant, Public Finance Resources, Inc.	The upcoming state budget will have a major impact on fiscal conditions for schools for the next couple years. Mr. Sobul will cover issues that the state will face both in its overall fiscal conditions, implications of the Governor's budget proposal, and the issues and challenges that the state will face in addressing the school funding formula.
Debt Issuance Process: Covering New Money Bond Issues, Refunding Issues, and Investments Eric Prall, Managing Director, Ross, Sinclair & Associates, LLC	This seminar is designed to provide information and guidance regarding all facets of the debt issuance process for K-12 school districts in Ohio. This includes, but is not limited to, issuing new debt to finance construction and/or improvements, refinancing previously issued debt, and investing the proceeds from both a debt issuance and a District's general fund balance as well.