Central Ohio AGA Webinar – Common Audit Deficiencies and How to Avoid Them Adam Lesch, Senior Manager, Julian & Grube, Inc.	Organizations commonly do not understand their audit or its results. The goal of this training is to change that! The audit report has become a massive document and is difficult to understand. This training will pick out certain areas of your audit you can focus on that will provide value to your organization. We will dive into common deficiencies that result from the audit, which will include internal control issues, audit recommendations, and noncompliance citations. Not all deficiencies are created equal, so we will focus our time on those most issued, and more importantly, we will discuss how you can avoid them. Oftentimes, deficiencies are simply due to a lack of understanding and can easily be avoided.
