Such Collateral records shall be regularly monitored by the Financial Institution and shall be reconciled to the records of the Trustee daily. The Financial Institution shall provide all reports reasonably required by the Treasurer and shall authorize the Trustee to provide any information reasonably requested by the Treasurer or its auditors pertaining to such Deposits and Collateral.

The Financial Institution hereby represents that it shall pledge as security for Deposits in excess of the amount insured by the FDIC only those Securities in which it is the legal and actual owner, free and clear of all other liens or claims, and that the same Securities shall be pledged in their entirety to the Treasurer so that the Treasurer can exercise its rights to sell the Collateral upon default of the Financial Institution in accordance with Ohio law. Except for the security interest granted herein, the Financial Institution covenants that the Collateral shall remain free from any and all security interests, liens, encumbrances, claims and interests. Upon the Financial Institution's failure to immediately pay and satisfy upon presentment, any check, electronic funds transfer, or draft lawfully drawn upon any Deposits, or its failure to pay to the Treasurer the Deposits, either in part or in full, and any accrued interest, whenever due, the Treasurer shall have the right and power any time thereafter to recover the entire amount of money belonging to the Treasurer, then on deposit with the Financial Institution, together with all accrued interest, by sale of the Collateral. Any pledge hereunder shall be a continuing pledge and shall secure not only such Deposits that are held by the Financial Institution at the time of the transfer of the Collateral to the Treasurer hereunder, but also any and all subsequent Deposits with the Financial Institution by the Treasurer, notwithstanding the account or accounts in which such Deposits may be held or identified by the Financial Institution.

The Financial Institution shall maintain this Security Agreement among its official records continuously until such time as this Security Agreement is terminated and all Deposits have been properly paid out.
